

Press release

Keopsys group opens subsidiary in Japan Keopsys Japan

Keopsys acquires 100% of shares in Feira company, its historical partner in Japan. With the establishment of this Japanese subsidiary, Keopsys Group intends to pursue its expansion in the growing Asia market, aiming at being more responsive to its customers base with high technical solutions and services providers content

Tokyo, March 24th, 2017:

Feira company

MM. Fukube Hiroshi and Nozomu Matsui founded Feira distributes passive and active materials for photonics. Feira has 55 years of experience and credibility in the Japanese market and became Keopsys fiber lasers, and fiber amplifiers value added reseller in 2011. With their technical expertise and extensive market knowledge. Feira has made a significant breakthrough for Keopsys products portfolio in Japan

Marc Le Flohic founded Keopsys in 1997; a company specialized in design and manufacturing of fiber lasers and fiber amplifiers dedicated to scientific, military, space and environmental monitoring markets. With 110 collaborators and a 2016 growing turnover of 17 Mi€,

With this investment, Keopsys Group aims at establishing a long-term presence in the region, becoming a major fiber lasers and fiber amplifiers solution providers to a growing market where local presence and relationship are keys to success.